Villa Maria College

Erie, Pennsylvania

1969

Look to this day!
For it is life,
the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the varieties and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday
is already a dream,
and tomorrow
is only a vision;
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness,
and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.

— From the Sanskrit

Everything is going to be discovered and understood in the course of time . . .

Only we have to go on thinking

– Unknown

The courage to accept the things we cannot change

—Reinhold Niebuhr

*The fullness of life
does not come from*

he things outside us.

We ourselves must create the beauty in which we live

C. W. Cowman

*The flickering light
the melancholy
dreams of lost youth*

a song of sadness.

—Unknown

The joy . . . the pain!

In Memoriam

Carol Stouges

All mankind is of one Author, and is one volume;
When one man dies, one chapter is not torn out of the book,
But translated into a better language;
And every chapter must be so translated.

—John Donne

As the 1969 Vilmoiria nears completion, there are many people to be thanked for the time and effort which they put forth in making this book possible. There have been many trying times during the production of this yearbook, but the spirit and interest of the staff made a dream a reality. A very special "thank you" goes out to the American Yearbook representative, Mr. Richard Swanson, who has helped us so much this year. Also we wish to thank those parents, friends, and businesses who gave so generously to support this project for the girls at VMC. And we wish to acknowledge the support and encouragement which was offered by the faculty and administration.

There is an enormous amount of work that is put into a yearbook, but the memories of new friends and experiences which it captures are well worth the effort.

It is our sincere wish that this second edition and the future editions of Vilmoiria will convey the spirit and activity of the campus of Villa Maria College.
